

Angel In Disguise-

Verse 1 –

I've been lied to, I've been broken down before

But this time deep inside there's a feelin' that I know I've been waiting for

I can see forever, when I look into her eyes, and see dreams that I've dreamed

It's time for me to wake up and realize

This time, it feels like, she is the angel I needed

Hook-

She takes the weight from my heart, so I can breathe again inside

She will be by my side, and be my angel in disguise

Verse 2-

It's never ending, what she does to me, feels just like the first time

Like it's always been and will always be I can't fight, what feels right, she is the reason I waited

Hook-

'Cause she takes the weight from my heart, so I can breathe again inside
She will be by my side, and be my angel in disguise

Bridge-

She must have come, down from heaven

Pre-Chorus/Hook-

Inside, I'll fly, to where I've never been taken

Hook-
