

Revolution

Verse 1 -

She had the hope inside, since she was a child
What was in her heart was always sacred
She gave it all away, just to be betrayed
With empty promises that always faded
Can she, hold on till

Hook -

She will find out, what lies in her heart is not illusion
She will find out, that what burns deep inside is a revolution

Verse 2-

Will there be a day, she will try again
Will the hope inside go on forever
Can she find the man, who will understand
And take her to the place she's always waited
She's just waiting for the moment

Hook-

She will find out, what lies in her heart is not illusion
She will find out, that what burns deep inside is a revolution.. it's a revolution
